

Use the following thoughts and questions to have one spiritual conversation. You can pick and choose, use them all or just allow the statement to be your guide. The emphasis shouldn't be about having all the answers, but simply having a conversation.

1. Opening Statement

Begin your conversation by asking about this statement:

In sharing the gospel, point people to the character of God, the condition of man, the cross of Christ, and the confession of God's people.

This statement is the biblical truth the student's study was built around. Each week there will be one statement that ties the whole study together. These would be great statements to remember together. The hope is that thoughts and ideas will stem from these statements. You can also begin by sharing a thought of your own that you learned during your study of the same lesson. Ask what thoughts were surprising as the study was taught.

2. Thought From the Study

Not everyone we share the good news with will follow Christ. But as we share, we are being faithful to the commission Jesus has given us, and that is all He has asked of us.

What motivates you to share Christ with others? What hinders you?

3. Quote for Discussion

Discuss this quote together. How does this change your understanding of a relationship with Jesus?

"Let eloquence be flung to the dogs rather than souls be lost. What we want is to win souls, and they are not to be won by flowery speeches. We must have the winning of souls at heart, and be red hot with zeal for their salvation; and then however much we blunder, according to the critics, we shall be numbered among those whom the Lord calls wise." —Charles Spurgeon

4. Conversation Questions

Use these questions to begin thinking through and applying the lessons to your family life:

1. How can we make sure your friends know that our family cares for them? What kind of impact could this make when it comes to sharing Christ with them?
2. In what ways has our family experienced the goodness of God? How can acknowledging these blessings point others to Christ?
3. How does the way we treat one another affect our witness for Christ? What are some things we need to work on when it comes to showing respect and love within our family?
