

Use the following thoughts and questions to have one spiritual conversation. You can pick and choose, use them all or just allow the statement to be your guide. The emphasis shouldn't be about having all the answers, but simply having a conversation.

1. Opening Statement

Begin your conversation by asking about this statement:

As the bride of Christ, Christians are to focus on Jesus, live as Kingdom citizens, and prepare for Jesus' return.

This statement is the biblical truth the student's study was built around. Each week there will be one statement that ties the whole study together. These would be great statements to remember together. The hope is that thoughts and ideas will stem from these statements. You can also begin by sharing a thought of your own that you learned during your study of the same lesson. Ask what thoughts were surprising as the study was taught.

2. Thought From the Study

The Christian view of the future is a lot like knowing how a sports game, book, or movie will end. God has already revealed what the future will be. In fact, God tells us that our future in Christ is one filled with glory. No matter what happens today, we know that our future is secured in Christ.

As a Christian, your future is secured. How does this truth help you live for Christ today?

3. Quote for Discussion

Discuss this quote together. How does this change your understanding of a relationship with Jesus?

"It is safe to tell the pure in heart that they shall see God, for only the pure in heart want to." —C.S. Lewis

4. Conversation Questions

Use these questions to begin thinking through and applying the lessons to your family life:

1. In what ways is our family focused on the future? How does this influence the decisions we make?
2. Does the future reality of Jesus' return impact the decisions we make as a family? If not, what can we do differently to make sure we are focused on Christ and not just on ourselves?
3. What are some characteristics of Kingdom citizens?
4. How well do you think our family reflects our Kingdom citizenship? What are some things we could do to better reflect the love of Christ to our neighbors?
