

Use the following thoughts and questions to have one spiritual conversation. You can pick and choose, use them all or just allow the statement to be your guide. The emphasis shouldn't be about having all the answers, but simply having a conversation.

1. Opening Statement

Begin your conversation by asking about this statement:

Worship is an expression of the value of God, includes our exalting of God in all of life, and should be done with other believers in anticipation of seeing God.

This statement is the biblical truth the student's study was built around. Each week there will be one statement that ties the whole study together. These would be great statements to remember together. The hope is that thoughts and ideas will stem from these statements. You can also begin by sharing a thought of your own that you learned during your study of the same lesson. Ask what thoughts were surprising as the study was taught.

2. Thought From the Study

God has created us to worship and glorify Him. Worship expresses God's ultimate worth and value. We engage in worship through our exaltation of God in all of life, and we gather with other believers to worship God, anticipating His coming kingdom. Our mission is driven by a passion to see God worshipped by all people everywhere.

What are some reasons God is worthy of worship?

3. Quote for Discussion

Discuss this quote together. How does this change your understanding of a relationship with Jesus?

"Fundamentally, worship is the celebrative response to what God has done, is doing, and promises to do."
— John Witvliet

4. Conversation Questions

Use these questions to begin thinking through and applying the lessons to your family life:

1. What are some things our family focuses our time, energy, and thoughts on? How are these actions an indicator of what we worship?
2. Do we spend more time focusing on these things than we do on Christ? If so, what steps can we take to change that?
3. What are some practical ways our family could experience God's presence and worship Him in ordinary circumstances, like home, school, or extracurricular activities?
